Hari Krishan Dua

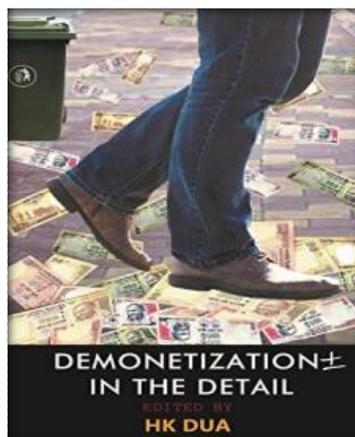

A respected diplomat, parliamentarian and newspaper editor, Hari Krishan Dua was born in 1937 at Sargodha in undivided Punjab (now in Pakistan). Educated at Panjab University, H.K. Dua took to journalism early on in life and excelled as a political commentator and analyst.

Dua's journalistic career spans over four decades, his major areas of interest being political and international affairs. He served as editor of four leading national dailies for over 15 years. He was Editor of The Hindustan Times (1987-94), Editor-in-Chief of The Indian Express (1994-96), and Editorial Advisor, The Times of India (1997-98). He served as Media Advisor to the Prime Minister of India (1996-97, 1999-2001) and Ambassador of India to Denmark (2001-03). He was Editor-in-Chief, The Tribune (2003-09) and a nominated member of the Rajya Sabha (2009-2015). He was a member of the National Security Advisory Board and several high-profile committees including Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs, Consultative Committee for the Ministry of Home Affairs, Committee on External Affairs, Committee on Ethics, Committee on Health and Family Welfare etc.

He received several prestigious awards for distinguished service to journalism including Durga Ratan Award, G.K. Reddy Award, Bal Gangadhar Tilak Award and B.D. Goenka Award. He was adjudged the 'media person for 1994' by India Media. He was awarded the Padma Bhushan in 1998.

He was the President of the Editors' Guild of India for two terms (1988-89). During his travels abroad as a journalist, Dua interviewed several world leaders including Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher of U.K., Prime Minister Li Peng of China, Prime Minister Yithzak Rabin of Israel, President Rafsanjani of Iran.

Dua has been conferred honorary degree of D.Lit. by Kurukshetra University. He has brought out a book on demonetization providing disparate views on the subject by experts, Demonetization in the Detail (ed.).
